2.6 Innovative processes adopted by the institution in Teaching and Learning:

Course Plan:

Good planning allows for more effective teaching and learning. Course plan is a vital component of the teaching-learning process. Design of course plan includes various factors:

- Syllabus
- Objective of a subject
- List of references (Text and Reference Books and Web resources)
- Usage of teaching aids
- Planning of assessment test and assignment submission.
- Details of assignment topics.
- Content beyond syllabus, plan (if any).

Course plan will be prepared well in advance. Based on the course plan, habitual work of subject will be carried out. It is distributed on the day of reopen so that students can adhere themselves to listen to the lectures.

On the other hand, it enhance the confident level of faculty, since better planning will enrich the confidence level. It also helps the students to build a small basis on the subject by focusing on course plan itself.

Time table:

“Failing to plan is planning to fail”-Alan Lakein.

Structured time table will also have impact in proper planning of work. A well thought-out timetable basically helps you take control of your day from one hour to the next. Time table consist of mainly four slots, students, faculty, timing and room. In spite of the above factors, some additional factors are also considered during the design process of timetable.

Class strength, counselors, class committee members and chairperson details are incorporated within the timetable. Alternate week of Saturdays are designed by accounting professional activity and counseling activity. Apart from the activity, special attention has been given to PDP (Personality Development Program) by Placement team members.

Assignment:

Today, educators realize that computer literacy is an important part of a student's education. Cooperative Learning is a systematic pedagogical strategy that encourages small groups of students to work together for the achievement of a common goal. Students confer their state of art work by presentation. Active learning is a process in which the students will be engaged in hands-on activities rather than passively receiving knowledge.

Active learning requires students to participate in class, as opposed to sitting and listening quietly. Strategies include, but are not limited to, brief question-and-answer sessions, effective evaluation strategies have been framed in the assignment. Assignments are one of the key factors in continuous assessing of student learning of a subject. Three modes of assignments are introduced: seminar, presentation and paper work to enhance the teaching learning process. Assignment topics can be finalized based on the weightage in university question papers.

Modes of assignment and submission deadlines will be included in course plan of a subject, so that students can plan in prior. To develop the writing skills, better opportunity will be given to students through the submission of assignment through paper work. To neutralizing their fear and boosting their confidence, seminar mode of assignments were introduced. All these mode of assignments will be compiled in slip test note. Students who turn in assignments on time will usually see higher grades than students who miss deadlines. This promotes the students to Work collaboratively with others.

Learning Materials Verification (LMV):

Learning materials are the backbone for the students to prepare for their exams. Learning materials contains Course plan, Small questions (20 soft copy) and Big questions(10 questions-written), Assessment questions. All the questions have to be set based on the university question papers. It will be verified by the LMV Committee.

Suggestions and corrections are to be updated in due time and to be kept ready in the department for distribution. Group mail id for class has to be created and the learning materials will be sent through mail on the day of reopen. Within a week time after the reopen of college, material has to be produced by the students for verification purpose. This helps the students to focus on the test well.

2.8 Examination/ Evaluation Reforms initiated by the Institution (for example: Open Book Examination, Bar Coding, Double Valuation, Photocopy, Online Multiple Choice Questions)

Evaluation of Assessment:Pre Plan:

Two sets of internal exam question papers (AT-1,AT-2,MODEL) will be collected well in advance which strongly emphasize about the completion of syllabus before internal exam. Prior submission of question will formulate the faculties to complete the syllabus.

Syllabus coverage form is also collected before the start of assessment to ensure for the divergence in the completion of portion. Since two sets of question papers have been collected, there will not be any outflow in question paper.

To improve the performance, micro level planning has been made for the conduct of slip test. Questions were collected and distributed in prior, in order that students can formulate it to improve the marks.

Assessment:

Internal assessment marks system in general reflects the performance of the students both in theory and lab. Based on this information faculty will guide the students properly which emphasizes the growth of various abilities thereby enabling the faculty to take corrective action as and when required.

In Anna University, internal marks had been calculated based on three entries of web portal marks.

Theory:

Web portal mark assessment procedure is formulated as:

- Assessment Mark : 50
- Continuous Assessment (CA)Mark : 50
- Additional Assessment Mark : 7 (if student secure ≥ 30)

Continuos monitoring of students will be carried out through continuous assessment process. The primary aim of introducing continuous assessment is to improve the performance of students. CA mark will be maintained in logbook for each subject. Web portal 1 contains only attendance.

Continuous Assessment test(50 mark) for web portal 2 and web portal 3 is categorized as

- Slip test 1+Slip test 2=Mark has to be averaged for 25.
- Attendance=10
- Assignment=15

Continuous Assessment test(50 mark) for web portal 4 is categorized as

- Coaching class attendance has to be converted for 25.
- Attendance=10
- Assignment=15

If the students fails to secure < 30 , he/she has to attend pick up exam.

The details of pick up exam are as follows:

The weightage of this exam will be 70 marks(Maximum 70 only)The exam question paper will be same as that of assessment test already appeared, students has to bring both question paper and answer sheet while coming for exam, without which they will not be permitted. Not more than 30% of students in a class are eligible to attend pick up exam.

Lab:

The internal marks for lab are calculated as :

- Attendance 25
- Observation 25
- Record 25
- Model Exam 25

The high score of internal marks will increase overall percentage of marks. A strategic approach to the development of the evaluation and assessment framework provides an opportunity to reflect on the articulations between the different evaluations components. Moreover after each test, papers will be distributed to students and acknowledged by them which create a transparency in valuation methodology.

Evaluation:

Test report has been designed and to be maintained by the department Heads of all the years. Test report contains number of students passed, number of student's more than average level, and reason for poor performance and corrective action. Details will be entered after each test which helps in continuous monitoring of a subject by the Heads. This serves as a node where clear focus for subject can be made.

Remedial classes will be planned before the day of assessment test from 3.15 pm to 4.50 pm, where students can discuss with their faculties regarding the subject and also faculties can plan the conduct of class for the important topic, so that the absentees for the regular class will get benefit.

7.3 Give two Best Practices of the institution (please see the format in the NAAC Self-study Manuals)

Title: Examination restructuring system in enhancing the teaching and learning process:

Goal:

- To reform the examination system procedure thereby improving the performance of slow learners.
- To abolish set syllabi system for assessment exam.
- To replace them by a system for a continuous evaluation.
- To make the examination as an integral part of the teaching process.

Context:

Some of the major problems related to our internal examination system are as follows:

- Examinations have come to dominate the educational process;
- Passing examination has become more important than acquiring any education.
- Improper in completion of syllabus.
- No transparency in awarding of internal marks.
- Tracking of pass percentage of each course of each exam.

Practice:

Two sets of internal exam question papers is being collected well in advance. Syllabus coverage form is also collected before the start of assessment to ensure for the completion of portion. If any deviation occurs, special hour will be arranged by the department to ensure the completion of portion within the time. To improve the performance, slip test is planned and executed at the department level. Internal marks is distributed based on continuous assessment (CA) and assessment test. Assignment, Slip test and Attendance will be taken into account for CA mark. In assessment test, if the students failed to get good mark, they can earn the mark by pick up exam. The high score of internal marks will increase overall percentage of marks. Moreover after each test, papers will be distributed to students and acknowledged by them which create a transparency in valuation methodology.

Test report contains number of students passed, number of student's more than average level, and reason for poor performance and corrective action. Details will be entered after each test which helps in continuous monitoring of a subject by the Heads. This serves as a node where clear focus for subject can be made.

Internal marks will be displayed in noticed board after each entry of web portal mark, students can avail this practice in positive method thereby increasing the performance in forthcoming entry.

Impact of the Practice:

Continuous assessment being an important component of examination system, it encourages the students to work systematically throughout the course. The above practices provided a greater impact in awarding of internal marks. The reformation system ensures the effective teaching and their progress in the test component. Holding of examinations is much simplified and regularized and results could be declared as per the predetermined date specified in the academic calendar. Students have the opportunity to discuss their answers through all accepted tools of internal evaluation. This adds to reliability and also transparency of the system.

Resources required:

Well structured academic calendar and course plan. Exam cell co-coordinator has to monitor the syllabus coverage status, question set verification and test report update.

Practice 2:

Amplification of teaching and presentation skills

Goal:

To amplify the teaching methodology.

Course plan should be planned so as to increase the use of ICT . Assignment mode will help the students to develop their subject knowledge and also their presentation skills.

Context:

ICT integration in teaching –learning process has provided many opportunities to the teachers in using innovative strategies for teaching and learning.

Traditional method of teaching will not have a greater impact among students now a days

Practice:Assignment:

Active learning requires students to participate in class, as opposed to sitting and listening quietly. Strategies include, but are not limited to, brief question-and-answer sessions, effective evaluation strategies have been framed in the assignment.

Assignments are one of the key factors in continuous assessing of student learning of a subject. Three modes of assignments are introduced: seminar, presentation and paper work to enhance the teaching learning process. Assignment topics can be finalized based on the weightage in university question papers.

Modes of assignment and submission deadlines will be included in course plan of a subject, so that students can plan in prior. To develop the writing skills, better opportunity will be given to students through the submission of assignment through paper work. To neutralizing their fear and boosting their confidence, seminar mode of assignments were introduced. All these mode of assignments will be compiled in slip test note. Students who turn in assignments on time will usually see higher grades than students who miss deadlines. This promotes the students to Work collaboratively with others.
