

Board of Studies

The foundation of our independent institution's academic structure is the Board of Studies.

- The BoS oversees and manages the creation of the curricula and syllabi for the several programs our institute offers.
- It periodically evaluates and modifies the curricula and syllabi, adds new courses of study, decides on the specifics of continuous assessment, suggests examiner panels under the semester system, and more.

Term:

The term of the nominated members shall be three years.

Meetings: The Board of Studies will meet once a year or more frequently as needed.

Functions and Responsibilities of the BoS:

- The Board of Studies will suggest to the Academic Council for additional approval the following issues, such as study plans and actions to raise the caliber of instruction and research.
- The BoS members will play a significant role in creating the curricula for their various courses while taking into account the college's goals, stakeholder interests, and national regulations. They will also offer ideas for creative teaching and assessment strategies.
