

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC):

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is committed to upholding high standards in research, lifelong learning, continuous education, and the teaching–learning process. Students are included as active members of IQAC, ensuring their voices are heard in evaluating its effectiveness. To strengthen its functioning, IQAC seeks feedback from both students and alumni, with alumni providing valuable insights into industry expectations.

Furthermore, IQAC collaborates with students to set benchmarks for academic and extracurricular performance. The IQAC Coordinator regularly visits departments and interacts with faculty and staff to review progress and address concerns. To support its development and administration, IQAC is assisted by dedicated personnel. Communication and dissemination of information are effectively carried out through meetings, emails, and circulars.
