

Planning and Monitoring Committee:

The Planning and Monitoring Committee is primarily concerned with modernizing the laboratory, enhancing the Institute's infrastructure, and organizing Institute-Industry Interaction events. The committee keeps an eye on all of the department's activities, including symposiums, guest lectures, workshops, and national and international conferences. The Planning and Monitoring Committee's membership and duties are as follows:

S.No	Members	Category	Nature
1	Dr.D.Shanmugasundaram	Principal	DhanalakshmiSrinivasan Engineering College (Autonomous), Perambalur
2	Dr.K.Anbarasan	Member	Professor, Department of EEE DSEC (A), Perambalur
3	Dr.M.Chellapan	Member	Professor, Department of MECH, DSEC (A), Perambalur
4	Dr.G.Venkatesan	Member	Senior faculty, BHEL, Thiruchirappalli

Planning and Monitoring Committee Member DetailsTerm:

The nominated members will serve three-year terms.

Meetings:

At least one Planning and Monitoring Committee meeting must take place each year.

Functions and Responsibilities of the Planning and Monitoring Committee:

- Monitor, support, and evaluate the processes involved in developing the institution's infrastructure, laboratories, and other facilities accessible to faculty, staff, and students.
- Plan and coordinate academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities for the upcoming semester or academic year.
- Review and discuss the stakeholders' feedback analysis report, and propose remedial measures to improve institutional performance.

Assess the annual research and development initiatives of the college, and recommend strategies for further enhancement in this domain.